

Photographs by Hank Loftus at the Eight Annual Carbondale Welsh Heritage Evening, March 1, 2011, at the Ben-Mar Restaurant in Carbondale:

141. Welsh Cookies, Brewed Tea, and Flowers. Barbara Campbell and friends made the cookies. The tea pots are from the collection of Joseph Pascoe and S. Robert Powell. The flowers were provided by Barbara Campbell (from her niece).

142. S. Robert Powell speaks to the group about the pioneer Welsh settlers of Carbondale.

143. Donald W. Powell greets the camera.

144. Ted Frutchey, Donald W. Powell, Jerry Williams, and Patty Williams. Ted and Jerry are two of the prime organizers of Welsh events in Lackawanna County. We were very pleased that they attended the Carbondale celebration.

145. S. Robert Powell talks about two important Welsh “firsts” for Carbondale: first Eisteddfod in America; first Ivorite lodge in America.

146. Barbara Campbell delivering a reminiscence of her Welsh grandmother.

147. Live daffodils and leeks on each table

148. Barbara Campbell’s talk on her grandmother was very amusing and a big success with the group.

149. Ted Frutchey spoke of upcoming Welsh events in northeastern Pennsylvania.

150-156. Mrs. Fran Justin leads the Saint David’s Welsh Male Chorus in a program of song. American National Anthem and Welsh National Anthem (in English and then in Welsh); several Welsh hymns and songs; several selections from the Broadway show, Oklahoma.

157. Art Wilson and Ted Frutchey.
